Building Tomorrow, Together: Alumni Giving

Exciting things are happening in CSE, and we hope you can continue to be a part of them by giving of your time, talents, and resources. We are building the future from the new Agrusa Hall to EmpireAI and the new academic programs and research foci.

Listening to our Alumni, we understand that you would like a way to target your passions. We are doing just that this year through the CSE Gift Catalog. You will find categories of initiatives we are focusing on, but there are also many more.

Please look at the ideas below and contribute where you can. We are targeting giving from at least 50% of our alumni this year. It may seem daunting, but I hear from so many of you who are passionate about moving the department forward that I know we can do it!

If you or your company are interested in supporting the department in other ways, please contact our department representative, Deanna Abdellatif, at deannaab@buffalo.edu, and she will start the conversation!

Please visit the Building Tomorrow, Together section of our giving page and include any specific instructions in the comment.

If you need to update your contact information, you can do so here.

Philanthropy is based on voluntary action for the common good. It is a tradition of giving and sharing that is primary to the quality of life. To assure that philanthropy merits the respect and trust of the general public, and that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in the not-for-profit organizations and causes they are asked to support, we declare that all donors have these rights:

- To be informed of the organization's mission, of the way the organization intends to use donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.
- To be informed of the identity of those serving on the organization's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
- To have access to the organization's most recent financial statements.
- To be assured their gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
- To receive appropriate acknowledgment and recognition.
- To be assured that information about their donations is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
- To expect that all relationships with individuals representing organizations of interest to the donor will be professional in nature.
- To be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of the organization or hired solicitors.
- To have the opportunity for their names to be deleted from mailing lists that an organization may intend to share.
- To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.
