Corporate Partners Panel

Steven Rhoads II PE is a Substation O&M Services Manager at National Grid for the Upstate NY region. Mr. Rhoads proudly served in the United States military as a Sergeant in the Army Reserves from 1993 to 1999 as a Signals Support Systems Specialist. He received his ME EE graduate degree from the University at Buffalo in 2008 and his NY State Professional Engineering license in 2013. He has 5 ½ years of experience in manufacturing maintenance at US Steel & American Brass and over 17 years in substation maintenance & engineering at National Grid.

Gabi Mondschein attended Binghamton University for her undergraduate and master’s degrees in mechanical engineering, and was class of 2019 and 2020 respectively. She was an intern at Moog during the summer of 2019, and has been working at Moog full time for 2.5 years. She is a development engineer in the mechanical design group for the Test Equipment group within the Aircraft Group.

Matthew Wisotzky PE has ten years of experience working within both the New York and Pennsylvania Engineering Departments at National Fuel Gas Distribution Corporation. Matt has worked as Project Manager and Engineer on many natural gas Pipeline, Storage and Facility projects. As a part of the Company’s Distribution Sustainability Group and Hydrogen Team, he is involved with emissions reductions efforts and provides engineering support for these important initiatives. Matt holds a bachelor’s in civil engineering from UB.

Jon Rodriguez joined Foundry in January 2022 as a Recruiter. He supports the team in finding top tier crypto talent that will take Foundry to the next level. Jon is an experienced recruiter who previously worked for the biggest recruiting firm in the world as well as a recruiting start up where he was tasked with starting a new division. Jon enjoys helping candidates find their dream jobs and changing lives for the better. Jon lives in Rochester, NY with his wife and loves working for a company that is bringing so much opportunity to Western, NY.

Justin Shuttleworth has a unique background that combines business acumen and advanced technical skills. In 2015, Justin graduated from Buffalo State College with a business degree and began teaching himself to code full-stack shortly afterward. He joined ACV Auctions 18 months ago and has since contributed to key R&D projects, including the...

Langston McElroy is a Mechanical Equipment Engineer at Praxair, Inc (a Linde Company). As a student, Langston spent a summer as a Strategic Planning Intern at Praxair. He then joined the company full-time in 2016 after graduating from Vanderbilt University with his bachelor’s degree.