

Conference Events

Talent fair

Interact directly with company representatives.

Networking luncheon

Network with company representatives over lunch.

Panel discussion

Ask leaders from industry and academia about their experiences and career perspectives.

Keynote address

Hear an awe-inspiring career journey from an accomplished industry leader.

Distinguished lectures

Hear leaders from university/industry collaborations give a first person account of their work.

Workshops

Participate in workshops on resume writing, networking, immigration, and professional development.

SEAS Poster competition

View a showcase of graduate student research.

Join us on April 7-8, 2016 in Davis Hall for the
Second Annual Career Perspectives and Networking Conference (CPNC)

Exclusively for
Graduate students in the
School of Engineering and Applied Sciences

This two-day event provides a platform for graduate students to actively engage with industry representatives and gain perspective on future career opportunities.

UPDATE YOUR RESUME, BRUSH UP ON YOUR NETWORKING SKILLS, AND REGISTER TODAY!

For more details about this year's event, or to register, visit the conference website:
engineering.buffalo.edu/cpnc

Advance registration required.
$10 registration fee.

Brought to you by:

Career Services

School of Engineering and Applied Sciences

 University at Buffalo The State University of New York

