Dinner Meeting and Lecture – September 19th, 7 PM

Scott Anderson
On the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds

It is probably a safe bet there aren’t very many members of AIAA who haven’t seen a performance of the United States Air Force Thunderbirds. Since first flying F-84 Thunderjets in 1953, these “Ambassadors in Blue” have thrilled millions of spectators across the United States and Canada. Please join us this month when our speaker, Colonel Scott Anderson, U.S. Air Force retired and former Thunderbird, discusses his time with the team.

Thursday, September 19th, at Protocol Restaurant, 6766 Transit Road, Williamsville, NY 14221
Cash bar at 6:00 pm, Dinner at 7:00 pm, Presentation to follow dinner
Cost: $25 per person, $15 for students
