Women in Engineering Empowerment Scholarship

Deadline to Apply: Aug 1

Are you a female undergraduate or graduate student pursuing a degree in engineering, science or math? Tacuna Systems is excited to announce our new "Women in Engineering Empowerment Scholarship". Women are still very much under-represented in STEM fields both in higher education and in industry. Our goal is to help equip one female student overcome this gender gap by offering $1,000 toward her studies in science, technology, engineering, or math.
